Letter of 31-7-1949 from Sri M. Lakshminarasimhaya, Professor of Sanskrit, Maharaja's College Mysore — requesting for a reconsideration of his case for counting the period of probation put in by him for earning increments.

W Sri Lakshminarasimhiah Professor of Sanskrit, Maharaja's College Mysore was appointed Professor of Sanskrit in Gr. II Sr. Gr. 400-25-700 on probation for two years in 1944 and confirmed in the appointment after two years' probation. Prior to his appointment as Professor, he was Assistant Professor of the same college for [illegible] years. His request to the university to count the period of probation served by him for earning increments was not considered favourably. He appealed to the Govt in January 1949, through the university, and he was replied stating that his request cannot be complied with. In this connection the facts of the case of this officer have been given in detail (Vide collection CB 43 of 48-1 placed below) The officer wants Govt to reconsider the case in view of precedents. In addition to repeating what he has already represented the officer quotes certain instances where a few Assistant Professors have been promoted to the rank of Professors without stipulating any probationary period for them, and have been permitted to draw increments a year after their promotion and states that if he had been similarly treated he would have been entitled to increments in the usual course ~~his representation may be sent for examination by para~~ ~~report~~. Recently Sri B.R. Seshachar, ~~CKa 19/X~~ who was Asst Professor of Zoology was appointed as Professor of Zoology on probation for one year with effect from March 1947 and was confirmed in March 48 was permitted to count his period of probation for earning his first increment in grade 400-25-700. 12) Dr. Mandre's case is also identical with those of the cases cited above.

Dr Walton and Eagleton got two increments after his confirmation because when he was appointed it was stipulated that his probationary period would count for increments.

13) Sri Lakshminarasimhaiya, Reader of Sanskrit, like any other person, referred to above was selected out of candidates who had applied for appointments in response to advertisements by the University Calling for applications for the post of professors. Like others he too was on probation for two years. As such it is difficult to say how his case is different from others. Only the university must be in a position to explain the

10) Dr. Ramachandra Rao, Dr. Purushottam and Jagnath Narayan joined service when they were advanced in age. They had gained valuable experience in other institutions before they joined service. They also represented to the University Council that by the conferment of this concession they would get enhanced pension, otherwise their pension would be so little that to be of any help in their old age. Considering these points the university Council must have recommended for counting their period of probation for drawing increments. The recommendations of the university Council on behalf of these

15) Time spent on probation does not count for increments, but in certain cases recommended by the University for special treatment, probation period has been allowed to count. In the case of Prof. Lakshminarasimhaiah, the University has not thought fit to make a similar recommendations in spite of the repeated representations of the Professor, and the reason given is that the case "is not on a par with the other cases cited by Sir Lakshminarasimhaiah". The Secretariat is not in a position to see the difference - at any rate, with reference to the recent case of Sir B. R. Seshachar to whom the Concession was extended. If the matter may be further pursued, the University will be addressed and requested to explain the difference in sufficient detail. 16) A may be done if considered necessary.

24) It is explained in paras 9 and 10 of the letter from the Rep^r. U.M. how the Case of Sri Lakshminarasimhiah is different from those Cases which are quoted as precedents. It is said that the Concessions shown in the Cases of Sri Dr. S. Ramachandra Rao Janab Abdul Quadir Sarvani & Dr. Purushotham were specially considered in view of their age qualification etc. It is also stated that in para 13 of the letter of the Rep^r. that Sri Lakshminarasimhiah had a better treatment of his Case when Compared with earlier Cases of Sri A.R. Krishnasastry & Sri T.S Venkannaiah & C.R. Narasimha Sastry, the former professors of Kannada & Sanskrit who were confirmed after the period of probation and in particular it is said Sri A.R. Krishnasastry was confirmed seven years later.

25) In the circumstances the U.C. is said to be of opinion that the representation of this Officer does not deserve any favourable consideration. The only aspect in favour of this Officer is the question of equity and justice ie., to treat his case also in the light of the precedents. It is

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR FOR EDUCATION
Date 4/8/49
Diary No. 3741

Respected Sir,

In connection with two increments due to me in grade Rs. 400-25-700 I am herewith submitting for your kind perusal and benign consideration the following documents:--

Hon'ble Minister. ADM 2/8

Edn Secy The Concerned file be put up. DJ 2/8

1. Copy of a representation to the University with the orders thereon. "A".

2. Copy of an appeal to Government on the orders of the University, with the orders thereon. "B".

3. A comparative statement to elucidate the admissibility of my claims. "C".

4/8 From these documents you will see how the University has singled me out for undeserved condemnation and how Government also disposed of my appeal without giving me an opportunity to meet the grounds on which this attitude of the University is based. I find it difficult to reconcile myself to such treatment since I am convinced that the most exacting judicial enquiry will not offer the slightest justification for it.

Hence I would request you to reconsider my case in the light of all the facts submitted herewith or in the light of any finding that a competent tribunal might arrive at after full investigation, if you should deem it necessary. I would, however, assure you that I am prepared to submit to the severest penalty that Government might impose upon me on the basis of such a finding in case it should be adverse to me.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.6948 dated 30th December 1949, and subsequent reminder No.9950/C.B. dated 2nd February 1950, regarding the representation of Sri M.Lakshminarasimhiah, Professor of Sanskrit, Maharaja's College, Mysore, I am directed to furnish below a brief histor of the cases:-

2) 1. Dr. S.Ramachandra Rao, M.A., Ph.D.(Lond) D.Sc.(Lond).,

He joined service in the Mysore University on 8th March 1943 and was confirmed from 8th March 1945. He was permitted to draw Rs 450/- from the date of confirmation in grade Rs 400-25-700. In addition to a First Class M.A.Degree, he holds the Ph.D., and D.Sc., Degrees of the University of London.

3) He had a long service of over 20 years before he took up the Professorship at the Central College and had administrative and research experience for a considerable period at Annamalai University. He had already served as Professor and Head of the Department of Physics from 1934-43.

4) 2. Janab Abdul Quadir Servari, M.A., LL.B.

He joined service in the University on 11th August 1942 and was confirmed from 11th August 1944 and was permitted to draw Rs 450/- in the grade Rs.400-25-700 from the date of confirmation.

He had put in a service of 15 years at the Osmania University at the time of his selection for the Professor's post in the Mysore University. He had published books.

5) 3. DR.T.A. Purushottam, M.A., Ph.D.(Lond).,

He entered service in the University of Mysore on 17th March 1943. He was confirmed from 17th March 1945 and was permitted to draw two increments from 17th March 1945. He had worked as Additional Professor of

Professor of Philosophy at Madras in 1925 and had a reputation as a Teacher of Philosphy before he came to Mysore.

4. Dr.B.R. Seshachar, D.Sc.,

6) He entered service on 20th July 1926. He was appointed Professor of Zoology from 16th March 1947 on probation for one year. He was confirmed from 16th March 1948 and was subsequently permitted to draw his first increment in the grade from the date of his confirmation viz., 16th March 1948. He was in administrative charge of the Department of Zoology for a number of years and was granted an allowance of Rs 50/- per mensem.

7) 5. Sri M.Lakshminarasimhiah, M.A.,

He entered service in the University on 7th February 1925. He was appointed Ag.Professor from 27th July 1944 on probation for two years and was confirmed from 27th July 1946.

8) He had not acted as Professor nor was he in administrative charge of the Department prior to his appointment as Professor in 1944 in the Mysore University.

9) I am to state that the cases of (1) Dr.S.Ramachandra Rao (2) Janab Abdul Quadir Sarvari (3) Dr.T.A.Purushottam were specially considered in view of their age, high academic qualifications, distinction gained as teachers and research workers. Further their services in the Mysore University would be very small entitling them to very little pension since they would have put in only 11 or 12 years of service on the date o their superannuation.

10) I am to add in this connection that Sri C.R.Narasimha Sastry, Prof- of Sanskrit and Sri A.R.Krishna Sastry, Professor of Kannada, were only confirmed after the completion of the period of probation. Sri C.R. Narasimha Sastry who was confirmed from 24th June 1938 drew his first increment only from 24th June 1939. Sri A.R.Krishna Sastry was on Rs 400/- fixed for a number of years before he was given the grade Rs 400-25-700.

11) There is no specific provision in the Mysore Service Regulations ~~xkx~~ allowing the period of probation for increments. The increment has been granted one year after the date of confirmation only except when the Government Order is definite and specifies that the period of probation counts for increment as in the case of Mr.W.G.Eagleton and Mr.James K.Walton.

12) Prior to the four cases referred to above there seem to be no precedents of officers appointed on probation in the University having been confirmed with retrospective effect or allowed to count the period of probation for increments.,

13) As already intimated in this office letter No.A3-Mis.47-48 dated 8th November 1948, Sri M.Lakshminarasimhiah has had very fair treatment of his case from the beginning when compared with the earlier cases of Sri C.R. Narasimha Sastry,Sri A.R.Krishna Sastry and Sri T.S. Venkanniah, former Professors of Sanskrit and Kannada in the Mysore University-teachers, scholars, and writers of reputed fame. Except stressing the cases of Dr.S.Ramachandra Rao, Dr.T.A.Purushottam, Abdul Quadir Sarvari and Dr.B.R. Seshachar which were specially considered on individual merits by the University Council Sri M.Lakshminarasimhiah has not put forward any fresh grounds in his representation which has already been considered by the University Council and the Government.

14) The Vice-Chancellor is of the opinion that his representation does not deserve any consideration.

Yours faithfully,
